

Pursuing Cultural Humility

Victoria Ayoola, Manasa Akkineni, Hadil Alhayek, Sadia Aurna, and Sabrina Rivera

A word cloud containing terms such as: counseling, challenge, communication, students, cheapeats, findlay, gender, contribute, detroit, children, impact, Development, involved, focus, Michigan, rule, Believe, inclusion, ideas, Sensitivity, Findlay, organize, Learn, Training, dialogue, implicit, food, service, prepare, embrace, platinum, New, volunteering, building, experience, together, support, community, diversity, Understanding Humility, recovery, bank, culture, connection, equity, ohio, college, power, equality, transform, race, philanthropy, encourage, and diversity.

Light the fire within

The Buford Center for Diversity and Service received a grant from The Community Foundation to fund Pursuing Cultural Humility. This was an 8-month program designed to provide 10 local non-profit professionals and 10 University of Findlay students the opportunity to interact, grow together, and provide diversity and inclusion programming for each of the 10 non-profit organizations.